Charleston County Residents to Receive Annual Tax Bills in October

The Charleston County Auditor's Office will begin mailing annual property tax bills in October. Bills are expected to go out the first week of October and are due by January 16, 2018.

The Auditor's Office offers a Live Chat feature through its website. This allows citizens to avoid call wait times during peak hours and get answers without going to a physical office.

Tax bill information:

- If you do not receive your property bills by October 31, please contact the Auditor's Office to verify your mailing address.
- Contact the Assessor's Office if you have questions about your real property tax assessment ratio
- Questions regarding appraisal values for real property should be directed to the Assessor's Office
- If you owned your watercraft on January 1, 2017, you are responsible for the property taxes.
- If your business personal or rental residential tax bill is more than you expected, please verify that your 2017 return was filed.
- Property tax payments can be made at the Treasurer's Office or on-line at <http://sc-charleston-county.governmax.com/svc/>
