

News Release

May 18, 2016
Release Number: 4048

Charleston County Needs More Poll Managers for Upcoming Statewide Primaries

The Charleston County Board of Elections and Voter Registration \(BEVR\) is in need of 175 poll managers for the June 14 Statewide Primaries in the following locations:

- Lincolnville
- Mt. Pleasant
- Sullivan's Island
- Downtown Charleston
- James Island

The Statewide Primaries will occur on Tuesday, June 14 are scheduled from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

"Poll managers have a unique opportunity to serve the community, meet their neighbors and become involved in the democratic process," said Joseph Debney, BEVR's Executive Director.

Poll managers are compensated $120 ($60 for training and $60 for working on Election Day) for each election they work. The poll manager must work Election Day to be paid for the training session.

Election Day duties include: processing of voters, ballot distribution, activate the voting machines, compliance with election law and procedures and general voter assistance.

Applicants must be:

- A registered voter in Charleston County or an adjoining county (Dorchester, Berkeley, Georgetown or Colleton County). Students ages 16 and 17 may apply as well although they are not registered voters.
- Willing and able to attend a Poll Manager Training Session (two to three hours in length) and pass a written certification test.
- Prepared to work the entire Election Day, from 6 a.m. until approximately 7:30 p.m.
- Non-partisan and neutral when working an election.

To apply for a poll manager position visit <http://www.charlestoncounty.org/departments/bevr/poll-managers.php> to download an application and employment verification form.

For questions, please contact electionworkers@charlestoncounty.org or by phone at (843) 974-6421.

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- Prepared by Public Information Office -