

Charleston County News Release

Release Number: 3276

Date: May 4, 2011

Traffic Alert: Nighttime Work Continues on Wingo Way in Mount Pleasant

Possible delays between 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. from May 4 to June 4

Charleston County Government announces a continuation of road construction on Wingo Way between Mathis Ferry Road and McGrath Darby Boulevard in Mount Pleasant as follows:

- From May 4 to June 4, Wingo Way may be reduced from two lanes to a single lane during the day from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. at intermittent times during construction.

The project is funded by the Charleston County Transportation Committee \(CTC\), and is administered by the Charleston County Transportation Development Department.

Background on the project:

- The project consists of installing drainage infrastructure and constructing a new multi-use path along Wingo Way from Mathis Ferry Road to McGrath Darby Boulevard in order to improve drainage and pedestrian access.
- Currently, the sidewalk in the project area is five-feet wide and the new multi-use path will be eight-feet wide and constructed from concrete.
- A new, multi-use path will provide connectivity from the sidewalk on Mathis Ferry Road to an existing path near Mount Pleasant Memorial Waterfront Park.
- It is expected to be completed by July 29, 2011, however, the completion date is dependent on the weather.

For more information on the project, call the Charleston County Transportation Development Department at (843) 202-6151.
