

News Release

September 8, 2015
Release Number: 3949

Charleston County Family Court to Hold Bench Warrant Reconciliation Day

Individuals with Family Court bench warrants are encouraged to participate

The Charleston County Family Court is holding a Bench Warrant Reconciliation Day on September 30, 2015. Working in conjunction with the South Carolina Department of Social Services (DSS), the court aims to provide an opportunity for those under a bench warrant to get back on a payment plan and avoid going to jail.

Charleston County Family Court currently has approximately 15,641 active support cases. Of those cases, there are 2,715 bench warrants currently active.

Interested parties must visit the S.C. Department of Social Services (DSS) office, located at 3346 Rivers Ave, Suite E, on September 17 or 18 to reserve a time on the September 30 Family Court docket.

The public can call DSS at 843- 953-9700 for more information

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- Prepared by Public Information Office -