Charleston County Update on Main Road: Severe Weather Update #14

Main Road in Charleston County is currently closed because water remains on the roadway. The County's Public Works Department and the South Carolina Department of Transportation are working to clear obstructions in the drainage system. The Charleston County Sheriff's Office is on site and reports the vehicles in the roadway that were stuck in the flood waters have been removed.

The County is working to reopen the road. Please check the Charleston County Sheriff's Office Twitter page and local media for updates on the road's condition.
