MEDIA ADVISORY:

Community invited to National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims ceremony

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, September 20, 2024

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Survivors of Homicide Support Group invites the community to join in a special ceremony commemorating the National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims. This ceremony provides a space for healing and reflection for those affected by homicide. It will also serve as a chance for family members to honor the memories of loved ones lost to violence.

The Survivors of Homicide Support Group is a joint initiative of the Charleston County Sheriff's Office of Victim Assistance and the Medical University of South Carolina Crime Victims Center. The goal of the group is to offer emotional support and a sense of community through regular meetings in the tri-county area.

Who: The Survivors of Homicide Support Group will host the event. It is sponsored by the Charleston County Sheriff's Office's Victim Services Unit, the North Charleston Police Department's Victim Services Unit, the Medical University of South Carolina, and the Coastal Crisis Chaplaincy.

What: National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims

When: Wednesday, September 25, 2024, at 6:30 p.m.

Where: The Charleston County Sheriff's Office Law Enforcement Center
3691 Leeds Avenue, North Charleston

The event will take place in the Azalea Room. Attendees can park in the back of the building. There will be signage with directions on where to enter.
