Tikvah Health and Wellness establishing operations in Charleston County

Company's investment will create 13 new jobs over the next few years

Tikvah Health and Wellness (Tikvah), a health engagement platform, today announced it is establishing operations in Charleston County. The company's investment will create 13 new jobs over the next few years.

Tikvah's platform allows self-insured employers to integrate natural and functional medicine into their healthcare plans. The company connects employees with vetted practitioners and provides technology-driven navigation tools that support healing.

Tikvah's new office space in the Harbor Entrepreneur Center, located at 11 Ewall St. in Mount Pleasant, will allow the company to build out its technology platform and innovation initiatives.

Operations are already online. Individuals interested in joining the Tikvah team should contact david@tikvahhealthandwellness.com.

QUOTES

"Our launch in Charleston County positions us to accelerate education and expand access to functional and integrative medicine across the region. This is about improving outcomes, reducing costs and delivering a model of care that restores hope in health for employers and employees alike."
